Be a sommelier.

Workshop in cooperation with the LSESU German Society

Meet Roland Berger consultants and find out more about how we work. After getting insights in the Roland Berger world, we will learn from a sommelier where wine comes from, how it's made, how to taste and why it tastes the way it does. Interesting conversations and wine pleasure guaranteed!

Who: Members of the LSESU German Society

Where: February 9, 2017, 5:30 p.m.

When: LSE campus and 28° - 50°

Interested? Then apply with your CV (including information about your grades as well as your practical experiences) until January 31 online or via email at magdalena.fath@rolandberger.com.
